14th January 2010

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Notice on Life-wide Learning Week 2009-10 No.085B
 (To: All Students)

In order to widen the scope and horizon of students, we are organizing a Life-wide Learning week from 18th January to 22nd January. Students will have a chance to go outside of the classroom, learn in real contexts and authentic settings.

In addition, all students will engage in a Project Learning activity with the theme "China and its culture" which aims to facilitate students' independent learning capabilities, develop their generic skills and interpersonal relations. It also enables students to construct knowledge and broadens their horizons. Parents are invited to encourage students to participate actively in the activities and give your support accordingly.
