14th March, 2021

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Suspension of face-to-face classes from 15/3 and reschedule of P.6 SSPA submission assessment 2020-21 No.e072B
(To: All students)

In view of the severe epidemic situation in the Central and Western District in recent days and the rapid increase in number of confirmed cases. Parents are kindly requested to pay attention to the following latest arrangements for the protection of students and staff of school:

1. Suspension of face-to-face classes:

From tomorrow, Monday 15/3 until the beginning of the Easter holidays, all face-to-face classes for P.5-6 will be suspended. Classes will be switched to online mode by ZOOM, timetable remains the same.

Easter holidays: 31/3 - 10/4

2. P.6 SSPA submission assessment:

The P.6 SSPA submission assessment originally scheduled next week will be rescheduled to 23/3 - 26/3 (Tuesday to Friday).

Thorough disinfection and cleaning will be carried out for the school premises this week.

3. School remains open:

School will remain open during the classes suspension period.

Students who have no one to take care at home can come back in school uniform for online lessons.

Time: 08:00 - 12:15

4. Classes arrangement after Easter holidays:

Starting from Monday 12/4, P.5 will be back to school every weekday and different grades will take turns to come back to school for face-to-face classes.

Please refer to the previous notice e064B for the details.

5. Collection and handing in of homework:

The above arrangement originally scheduled on 15/3 will be rescheduled to 22/3. The 29/3 homework collection date will be cancelled.

Homework arrangement includes P.1 to P.5

Parents please pay attention to the above arrangements and remind children to strengthen their personal awareness of epidemic prevention. Stay safe!
