Dear Parents/Guardians,

Notice on School-based Speech Therapy Service 2021-2022 No.009B
(To: Selected students)

To identify and support special educational needs of students, our school is providing free school-based speech therapy services funded by the Education Bureau. Our school-based speech therapist will be at school 3 days a week offering the following services:

1. To provide speech and language assessment for students in need
2. To provide intervention and follow-up services for students with speech and/or language impairments
3. To provide professional advice and conduct training programmes for teachers and parents
4. To organise school activities to enhance students' language abilities

Upon teachers' referral, students' information will be given to our school-based speech therapist as reference for assessment and/or intervention. All personal data and students' learning information will be kept confidential and updated in the Special Education Management Information System (SEMIS) of Education Bureau, for education purposes only.

Please complete and return the reply slip below on or before 8th September, 2021. Should you have any enquiries, please contact the class teacher or our school-based speech therapist Mr. Toto Siu.
